THESE AND THOSE

- 'These' is mainly used to refer to people or objects near us
- 'Those' refers to the people or objects far away from us
- It is applicable when the noun or condition is plural

OBJECTIVES

- Children will understand the use of 'these' and 'those' in plural context
- They can form meaningful sentences using 'these' and 'those'

PRE-ASSESSMENT

- Children can understand the objects more than one, that are closer and distant, in and around the classroom
- Let them understand proper application of 'these' and 'those' before the lesson like these are benches. Those are windows, base on questions from the teacher.

PRE-REQUISITES

- Objects in the classroom and park
- Printout of board game and worksheets
- Dice for board game

ACTIVITY-1

RUN AND TOUCH:

- Divide students into groups
- Ask them to observe objects which are more than one in the classroom
- When the teacher says "these" children must run/walk to objects near and touch them
- When the teacher says "those" they must run/walk to objects at a distance and touch them
- Each group can be made to do this activity one after another

ACTIVITY-1

- It is not a problem even if group members touch the same objects
- Eg: when the teacher says "these". They can run/walk to books on the bench
- When the teacher says "those", they can run/walk to windows or friends at a distance
- Repeat the activity with every group
- This activity can be played in children's play areas as well
